15/06/2012	Added license text on each component in the SCM service

Description:

Moskitt4ME is a new component developed upon the Eclipse-based MOSKitt platform. MOSKitt is under the EPL (Eclipse Public Licence) license; therefore MOSKitt4ME is developed and submitted under the EPL license.

Conclusions:

The use of EPL and the agreements with the Eclipse Foundation will lead to developments which can be uploaded to Eclipse suites and environments without restriction. As Eclipse is a widely-used software development community, our developments will be reviewed by the Eclipse community, ensuring a high quality.
